Author's acknowledgements

Given the wide geographical area that this book covers, it necessarily draws widely not just on my own research, but also on copious published material from a variety of different sources, including banks and other financial institutions, real estate industry organisations, reference books and even estate agents! Several people have also provided invaluable assistance by sharing with me their particular expertise on certain countries: Claire Brown (of Claire Brown Realty) helped on Thailand, Bali and the Far East; Tom Pattinson on China; Tom Walker on Morocco; Justin Sparks on the Czech Republic; Imre Karacs on Hungary; and Graham Platts on France. My wife, Roberta, shared with me her knowledge of her native Italy and also provided some useful more general comments on the manuscript. So, too, did Elisabetta, Alexander and Matthew.

This project would never have got off the ground if it had not been for Carey Scott, former editor of the 'Home' section of the Sunday Times, who championed the fly-to-let columns out of which this book has grown. Thanks also to John Witherow, Richard Casey and Sean Ryan for allowing me time away from my day job to write this book.

Despite my best efforts, some errors will inevitably have crept into the text. I, of course, take full responsibility for them.
